

How to write brief note on the area of Research

The note is a description of the proposed research. This note is to be submitted along with the documents / application form.

The note should cover the area of topic of your research interest. During the personal interview, you are expected to make a presentation of about 10 minutes based on this note.

The brief note can be of 1 – 2 pages and may include the following:

1. Research Area / Topic
2. Overview of the selected research topic
3. The Research Methodology